

BIOLAGE CRUELTY FREE CERTIFICATION

THE BIOLAGE CRUELTY FREE GLOBAL CERTIFICATION

Biolage is proud to be certified globally as cruelty free by Cruelty Free International (CFI) under the Leaping Bunny programme.

CFI is a global organization that certifies brands globally under the Leaping Bunny programme and uses the below international leaping bunny icon.

You can find Biolage on the <https://crueltyfreeinternational.org> website by searching for "Biolage" (see right)

Please note that leapingbunny.org is run by a coalition (CCIC) that licenses the Leaping Bunny Program from CFI for the US & Canada only. It does not certify on a global level like CFI does, it only certifies for the US & Canada. As such, Biolage will not come up on the CCIC-run leapingbunny.org website since Biolage has a global certification by the global organization, CFI. The CCIC uses the following Leaping Bunny icon for US & Canada which is different from the international icon.*
